

Colton White, Perkins County High School, placed first in Sociology, earning a $500 scholarship to Mid-Plains Community College at the annual inter-high day competition on the McCook Community College campus.

Dundy County-Stratton, Quinter and Hitchcock County topped all schools Wednesday claiming academic division titles

These schools bested 16 others vying for top academic honors in 28 categories and more than $20,000 in scholarship at the Wednesday event, which in addition to testing showcased MCC's academic programs with tours and demonstrations.
