

The public was invited to attend the spring plays/fine arts production at Perkins County High School on Sunday and Monday, April 21-22. Students performed short plays and intermittently throughout the action on stage, the audience was treated to vocal and instrumental numbers. In addition, visual art projects were on display.

