

Kuskie makes Dean's List

William Penn University is pleased to announce that Janet Kuskie of Grant. has been named to the Dean's List for the spring 2013 semester. To be included on the Dean's List, a student must complete at least 12 hours of credit with a grade point average of 3.5 - 3.89 on a 4.0 scale.

William Penn University in Oskaloosa, Iowa offers both post-secondary and adult education programs. Founded by Quakers in 1873, the school strives to provide a vibrant learning community where all students grow intellectually, socially, and spiritually through academic, creative and athletic pursuits.

Wurst earns degree

Joanna Wurst of Grant earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Wyoming at the completion of the 2013 spring semester.

Located in Laramie, the University of Wyoming is the state's only four year higher education institution, offering more than 190 programs of study. A low student faculty ratio allows for individual instruction and attention, and undergraduates often participate in cutting edge research projects.
